The Dramatization Of Salvific History In The Deuteronomistic

the deuteronomistic school history social setting and literature In the beginning was the Deuteronomistic History. It was not tohu wabohu but a well ordered creation by one author who had access to Israel's traditions. We knew not his name, though scoffers say it was Martin Noth. We called him simply "Dtr." And it was good. But as scholars multiplied on the Deuteronomistic History so did Dtrs.
